CILKA ELIZABETH INGROVA

The Senate proceeded to consider the bill (S. 1441) for the relief of Cilka Elizabeth Ingrova, which had been reported from the Committee on the Judiciary, with an amendment, to strike out all after the enacting clause and insert:

That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $15,000 to Cilka Elizabeth Ingrova, widow of General Sergei Jan Ingr, in recognition of the outstanding services the said General Ingr rendered the cause of freedom before, during, and subsequent to World War II and, in particular, his services to the United States from the date of his employment by this country in 1949 to the date of his death, June 17, 1956: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

The amendment was agreed to.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, was read the third time, and passed.
